

DESTINATION MARCHE

GRADARA CASTLE

Gradara is situated in the province of Pesaro Urbino and is one of the most beautiful Italian villages, Gradara is identified by its castle, is famous because as one of the best preserved Italian monuments

THE RED BLADES

The red blades they are also known as Grand Canyon of the Marche and they belong to the complex of the Sibillini mountains and overlooks the lake of Fiastra in the province of Macerata

FRASSASSI CAVES

The Frassassi caves are an extraordinary karst caves system in the city of Genga in the province of Ancona and they are one of the world's most fascinating subterranean passageways

TEMPLE OF VALADIER

The temple of Valadier is near to the Frassassi caves, is an octagonal church which rises among the rocks of a gorge between the mountains, was designed in 1828 by the Italian architect Giuseppe Valadier

PASTA WITH FUMÉ

Pasta with fumé is a typical dish of Marche region, the dish is prepared with a sauce with tomatoes, cream and bacon, the sauce was invented by the cook Stefano Marzi

ASCOLANA OLIVES

The Ascolana olives are typical dish of Marche region, they are called this for the city Ascoli Piceno, they are composed from green olives with meat

VERDICCHIO VINE

Verdicchio is a white wine cultivated in the Marche region, the name Verdicchio derives from the color of grape

CIAUSCOLO SAUSAGE

Ciauscolo sausage is a typical sausage from the Marche region, it is composed of meat, bacon, ham, garlic and pepper

THE PAPER OF FABRIANO

The paper production in Fabriano began in 1264

Cartiere Miliani Fabriano was born in 1782 from the union of the paper mills present in the area into a single paper mill. The founder is Pietro Miliani.

